WORK AREAD.

There is work ahead for the Republican part in the Tenth District. Look at the facts : The Republican majority in the District, for Secretary of State, in 1868, was 2,058. Governor Haves' majority, last year, was 575.

To redeem the District from this Democratic gain is the work before us. And to accomplish this, unceasing, carnest action is required. The The Convention, by acclamation, has again seleefed him as the standard-bearer of the party, and it becomes the duty of every Republican ASHLEY of his nomination. who has a pride in maintaining the political reputation of the District-who would feel chafore the people, and by them, in convention as-sembled, has been unanimously independ and the Newsenin's name was withdrawn: will be no child's play. Our opponents will Hilton leave no stone unturned to seenre a victory. They are thoroughly organized, and money, Itbor and trickery will be employed without re- follows : serve. If we would not see the Republican Way 66 banner trail in the dust, we must work earnestly from this time forth. Let no past differences interpose, for the long roll has been sounded, and the contest has begun.
